Prayer for this week

Almighty and everlasting God,
by whose Spirit the whole body of the Church
is governed and sanctified:
hear our prayer which we offer for all your faithful people,
that in their vocation and ministry
they may serve you in holiness and truth
to the glory of your name;
through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

FROM THE RECTORY DESK

Dear Friends,

We may be a good distance from the coast in this rural parish of SPW, but the sea is close to the hearts of most of us and we rely so much on sea going transport to import the goods we need and to export our industries all over the world.

Today is set apart in the church calendar to focus prayerfully and in other ways on The Mission to Seafarers more widely recognised perhaps by the flying angel on their emblem.

Mission to Seafarers has been around for over 180 years and their chaplains and welfare support staff are active in over 200 ports around the world bringing compassion and care to around 1.5 million mariners. I have seen first-hand as a Mission to Seafarers honorary chaplain at the Port of Milford Haven what life is like for those who work on ships. The work is often dangerous, low paid and months at sea make it very lonely.

Covid 19 has added to their stresses with ships locked down in foreign ports unable to deliver their cargo and the crew unable to see their families who may be on the other side of the globe. Many crews are denied shore leave, meaning they cannot access facilities ashore, shops or medical care for example. In most ports, normal welfare facilities are not available and ship visitation is unable to take place as usual. These are difficult times.

The ship is an ancient Christian symbol for the church, the mast and the yard arm form a simple wooden cross which represents the crucifixion. There are many churches that feature a ceiling shaped to resemble the bottom of a ship. so that looking up we can link with the disciples and Jesus in the fishing boats of Galilee and be reminded of a preacher who called his disciples to be “fishers of men”

Best Wishes,

Rector

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

O Eternal Lord God, who alone spreads out the heavens and rules the raging of the seas, receive into your protection all those who go down to the sea in ships and occupy their business on the great waters of the world. Preserve them both in body and soul, prosper their labours with good success, in all times of danger, be their defence, and bring them to the haven where they would be. We ask this in the name of Our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Mission to Seafarers is entirely funded by voluntary donations and offers emergency assistance, practical support, and a friendly welcome in 200 ports in 50 countries. www.missiontoseafarers.org

Stephen Cottrell - Election as the 98th Archbishop of York

Archbishop Elect Stephen moved to the Quire of York Minster to take up his Crozier in front of a small, physically distanced gathering drawn from his immediate staff representing the Archbishop's Leadership Team, Bishopthorpe Palace and York Minster. He then moved through the Minster to its West Door, where he knocked 3 times on the inside before it was opened to the world.

This reversal of the usual symbolism is intended to signify the openness of the Church to the world and reflects Archbishop Elect Stephen's desire to share the good news of Jesus Christ with the communities it serves.

Archbishop Elect Stephen spoke very positively about opening the doors at York Minster. He said:

“The Church is the body of Christ. As such we are being formed in his likeness to be sent out into the world to bring hope, healing, and wholeness. I like the symbolism of opening the doors of the church as we go out and see and be where God is already at work.

“As I take up the role of Archbishop of York, my focus will be on prayer, and I want to begin by praying for the unity of the Church, for all those persecuted, and for the Northern Province of the Church of England. May we be united as the body of Christ, of one mind and purpose to see God's Kingdom here on Earth.”

The service included music from York Minster Choir and Manor Church of England Academy, York. In the video resource that followed the service, young people from across the north of England read a letter written by the medieval religious scholar Alcuin of York.

Bishop Stephen gave his first address as Archbishop of York. Prayers were offered for the Archbishop, the Diocese of York and the Northern Province of the Church of England, as well as for the wider world in these difficult times.

PARISH GIVING

Give, and it will be given to you.

Even though we are not able to hold services in our churches, our expenses continue at more or less the same level as though we were able to. So, if you would like to make a financial contribution which you might have made to a collection at a church service, the PCC would be most grateful.

There are three ways in which you can do this:

1. Send the money electronically to the Seale, Puttenham and Wanborough bank account, which is at Lloyds Bank, Farnham, sort code 30 93 20, account number 02210758 (it would be very helpful if you could add your name as a reference)
2. Send the money by post to Michael Thorpe, Treasurer, Delamere House, Greenacres, Runfold, GU10 1QH
3. Set up a monthly direct debit to the above bank account.

Michael will supply you with a Gift Aid form for any payments which you are kind enough to make

PARISH GIVING SCHEME

You then hear a recorded message asking for your participant Id

Enter the following using the phone's key pad **#

You will then be able to listen to the Church Service.

5 General.

There are a few things you could help us with.

- Logon in good time for the start of the service (we open the call from 10am)
- Check that you are using the latest version of Zoom (from 30th May Zoom will require you to update to the latest version of Zoom).

See <https://support.zoom.us/hc/en-us/articles/201362233-Upgrade-update-to-the-latest-version>

- Mute yourself when you are not talking. (Note that Zoom security changes mean that the host now can't unmute you (for example at the end of the service) and you will need to unmute yourself if you want to be heard.
