Prayer for this week

O God, forasmuch as without you we are not able to please you; mercifully grant that your Holy Spirit may in all things direct and rule our hearts;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

FROM THE RECTORY DESK

Dear Friends,

The following article is a response to the recent visit of the Archbishop of Canterbury to the Diocese of Guildford.

The response to the Big Questions format developed by the diocese has been overwhelmingly positive, with 83% of participants recording the events an overall satisfaction rating of 4 or 5 out of a possible 5 (average 4.27) and 42% of those responding indicating that they brought one or more guests. Many said they were greatly influenced by Archbishop Justin's candour, warmth and personal testimony and were either strengthened in their faith or motivated to explore faith for the first time.

When asked, participants also indicated that there were a number of ways in which any future events could be improved. These included having a longer Q&A session with the Archbishop, more local marketing to boost the number of non-Christians attending, serving refreshments to extend the time available for mingling, providing ways for those uncomfortable with using phones to submit questions and scheduling events further ahead to enable awareness and attendance to build.

Best Wishes,

Rector

We are delighted to welcome you at worship in our four churches, but we are mindful that Covid cases are increasing as we approach the winter season so please help us stay Covid safe by observing the following:

- Please use the sanitising gel
- Please wear a mask if you want to sing hymns
- Please sit a safe distance from others
- Please don't physically share the peace
- Please give your name for test and trace
- Please put your collection in the retiring plate
- Please move around as directed by the Churchwardens
