Prayer for this week

Blessed Lord,
who caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning:
help us so to hear them,
to read, mark, learn and inwardly digest them
that, through patience, and the comfort of your holy word, we may embrace and for ever hold fast
the hope of everlasting life,
which you have given us in our Saviour Jesus Christ,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

FROM THE RECTORY DESK

Dear Friends,

Our Zoom church proved difficult to log into last Sunday and Anne Colcanen who was hosting sends her apologies for those who struggled to open the service link. Anne comments as follows:

“What has happened is that Zoom have added an extra security password when before you just had to click on the link. They generated an alphanumeric password but that was no good for telephone people so I changed the password into a number. The number I changed it to was the passcode already on the supplement. This should get most people in. Phone people have to put in the meeting number as usual and then that number and # each time they are asked for an ID which is twice. There probably should be 2 different IDs but I thought it was simpler this time.” There you have it so hopefully it should work this time round.

Next Sunday ends the month of October, it is also a 5th Sunday, so we look forward to the first United service since lockdown, St. John the Baptist Church Puttenham to host. In the afternoon we meet at 4pm (not 7pm a printer’s typo last week) for a Candle vigil in memory of the faithful departed.

We have a number of fundraising events organised over the next three months so please keep an eye on the web page for more details. Saturday began these events with a splendid concert with cream tea at St. John the Baptist church Puttenham.

Best Wishes,

Rector
