Prayer for this week

O God, you declare your almighty power most chiefly in showing mercy and pity: mercifully grant to us such a measure of your grace, that we, running the way of your commandments, may receive your gracious promises, and be made partakers of your heavenly treasure; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

FROM THE RECTORY DESK

Today brings mixed emotions as we say farewell to Phil, who begins his new ministry at St. Mark's Farnborough, now to be joined by Helen who has announced that she will take up a reader's role there as well as explore a vocation to the permanent diaconate.

The short notice has come because Helen has little time to prepare for and train in this role and must make the best of the time ahead in readiness for selection in the new year.

We will be sorry to see two gifted ministers leave us at SPW, but we recognise also that there are great things in store for them as they shepherd the good people of St. Mark's into an exciting time of worship and discipleship. Our prayers for Phil and Helen and their family as they settle into this complimentary ministry together.

We shall express our thanks and appreciations for all that they have shared with us over the past three years at the valedictory service at Wanborough, at 3.00 pm.

The harvest season is almost upon us, and we hope to fill shoe boxes of non-perishable harvest produce to present at our harvest services. We invite the children to decorate a shoe box with a harvest theme or message of hope.

Blessings,

Rector
